VETERAN ADM RAL DEAD.

FIGHT WITH PERUVIAN REBEL.

"HUASCAR" AFFAIR RECALLED.

LONDON, October 22.—The death has occurred of Admiral Sir Algernon de Horsey.

Admiral Sir Algernon Frederick Rous de Horsey, K.C.B., has been Deputy Governor of the Isle of Wight since 1913. Admiral de Horsey, who was 95 years of age, first saw service on the coast of Syria in 1840. He was senior naval officer during the Jamaica insurrection in 1865 and the Fenian raids on the Lakes of Canada the following year. From 1871 to 1876 he was A.D.C. to the Queen. From 1872 to 1875 he was Commodore in the West Indies, and from 1876 to 1879 Commander-in-Chief in the Pacific. In the flagship "Shah" he engaged the Peruvian rebel ironclad "Huascar," forcing her to surrender to the Peruvian authorities. When this action was questioned in Parliament, the Attorney-General (Sir J. Holker) said, "Huascar having committed acts which made her an enemy of Great Britain, Admiral de Horsey was justified in what he did." From 1884 to 1885 Admiral de Horsey commanded the Channel Squadron. He was placed on the retired list in 1892. His recreations became county administration, yachting, astronomy and mechanics' work.]

ANGORA'S ECONOMIC DESIGNS.

DISCOURAGING REPORTS RECEIVED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 22.

Details of the Turkish economic programme filtering through from Argon reveal efforts planning to transfer the Ottoman public debt to Greece as an indemnity. The National Assembly has already disavowed the debts contracted by Constantinople after the armistice and has now decided to wipe out all commercial concessions and contracts from which foreigners in future will be rigidly excluded. The foregoing, if admitted at the peace conference, will effectively strangle foreign trade.

SATURDAY'S FINALS.

In the presence of a large gathering of interested spectators and supporters of the movement, the finale in the first annual aquatic meeting of the Hongkong Boy Scout Association took place in the V.R.C. bath on Saturday afternoon. All the events were keenly contested by the boys of the various troops, and some exciting races were witnessed. A. The consortium will grant the company goods to a credit of 7,500,000 gold roubles and a further 5,000,000 to the Chinese Government.

HOME POLITICS.

CENTRE PARTY PLAN.

CURCHILL'S INTENTIONS.

LONDON, October 22.—Mr. Winston Churchill's continued belief in the possibility of a centre party emerges from a letter he sent his constituents at Dundee from the sick-bed declining that he proposes to stand as a Liberal free trader but hopes to co-operate freely with other minded Progressives and Conservatives in defending the country and the empire against the Socialist and Communist menace on the one hand and downright reaction on the other.

BOWLS.

NEW GREEN AT KOWLOON.

The members of the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club, their wives and friends formed a large attendance on Saturday afternoon at the opening of the new bowling green, which has been laid out by the Dock Company for the use of their employees.

After a two planting ceremony, to commemorate the occasion, Mr. R. M. Dyer, wife of the Chief Manager, performed the opening ceremony.

Mr. D. Keith, Chairman of the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club, introduced Mrs. Dyer to those present. In the course of his remarks he referred to the fact that during the war it was thought that by increasing the hours to 17 or 18 a day in the dockyards a greater output would be assured. It was found to be a fallacious theory, however, to deprive men wholly of recreation. They had to thank Mr. Dyer for his sporting instinct in recommending the Committee to lay out the ground for them.

Mr. Keith referred to the famous story of Sir Francis Drake and his refusal to fight the Spanish Armada before he had finished his game of bowls. He hastened to add, however, amid laughter, that if such came into the dockyard there was no reason to fear that the men would act likewise, but that they would at once cease their play and only resume after the work had been finished.

He then concluded by asking Mrs. Dyer to plant the green which they had for the occasion.

After the ceremony Mr. D. Keith presented Mrs. Dyer with an ivory jack which had been thrown along the bowling green, thus formally opening the ground for play. The "jack" bore a silver plate upon which was inscribed the words "Presented to Mrs. R. M. Dyer at the opening of the Kowloon Dock Bowling Green 21st October, 1922."

The bowling green is full sized and consists of seven rinks altogether. In addition to this splendid green, two miniature croquet courses have been laid out, and tennis courts.

During the afternoon the band of the 102nd Grenadiers played musical selection. The catering was done by Messrs. Williams.

TWO ARMED MEN.

ANOTHER KOWLOON HOME

ROBBED.

DRAIN PIPE CLIMB.

No. 476, Coronation Road, Kowloon, the residence of Mr. Lam Chin-wa, a former Canton official was entered by two men about 5 o'clock yesterday morning.

The intruders climbed a drain pipe in the verandah and gained access to Mr. Lam's bedroom by cutting away a pane of glass and putting back the bolt on the inside. They were armed with revolvers.

One of the menseled Mr. Lam and after threatening to shoot him, stole a diamond ring worth $1,000. The other man turned his attention to Mr. Lam's wife. Obtaining her keys, he opened a chest of drawers and stole $95 in cash and jewellery worth $30.

The robber escaped after binding and gagging their victim.

HOW TO PAY AMERICA.

PROPOSAL TO CEDE PART OF CANADA.

Mr. O. Macgregor, a New York member, speaking in the House of Representatives proposed, as a means of Great Britain liquidating her war debt to the United States, the cession to the United States of that part of Canada lying about the Great Lakes.

A Wuchow correspondent writes: On Thursday last about 4 p.m., a number of soldiers were seen hanging about one of the piers at Wuchow, and conjecture became rife as to what was going forward. Nothing happened, however, until 8 p.m., when a boat appeared drifting down the river and was pulled alongside the pier. This boat also contained soldiers. There was a considerable amount of shooting. Later carrier boats arrived and began to unload the boat. Enquiries were made and the boat was found to contain 110 chests of opium valued at 5,000 taels a chest. The drug had been seized by the Military.

"TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE."

HONGKONG, MONDAY, OCT. 23, 1922.

LLOYD-GEORGE.

The New York World, alone among the newspapers whose comment on the British political crisis Reuter has epitomised, seems to have grasped the personal significance of Mr. Lloyd George's resignation, expressing the opinion that "things could not have happened better" for the former Prounhampered leader. The dramatic Carlton Club meeting gave him his chance to secure this essential freedom and "throw himself on the people." This opportunity he was quick to seize, and now he is showing himself equally quick to exploit it. If his Manchester speech was designed to make him twice armed by getting his "blow in fast," his Leeds speech has now been used to follow it up with vigour and determination. With his slogan "National interests first against mere party gain," Mr. Lloyd George, the skilled and adroit politician, may yet win the day, in spite of party intrigues and hostile Press criticism. The public has a short memory, and it dearly loves a good fighter. Mr. Lloyd George, along among the European leaders, has survived the political perils of war and the even greater political perils of peace. Will he finally survive the perils of party politics?

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Miss Aileen Woods is a passenger by the "Shinjo Maru" arriving from San Francisco to-morrow.

Passengers returning to the Colony by the s.s. "Nankin" included Mr. J. D. Lloyd, Captain Steward, Dunn and Smith; Lt. Lake D.S.O., R.N., Pay. Lt. Laybourns R.N.

Trade is improving between Wuchow and Hongkong. It seems that trade between Nanning and Wuchow will reopen shortly as military conditions are in, roving.

The total output of the Kaitan Mining Administration's mines for the week ending October 7, 1922, amounted to 69,301 tons and the sales during the period to 75,938 tons.

Mrs. F. C. Jenkins and children and Mrs. A. W. Butterfield arrived from England yesterday by the N.Y.K. "Hakko Maru" and Mrs. Crockett by the P.O. steamer "Nankin."

Among the passengers who arrived by the s.s. "Hakko Maru" were Mrs. and two Misses Capell, Mr. and Mrs. Bramwell, Mr. A. B. Nielsen, Miss M. Stewart, Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Walts.

The wedding is announced of Mr. C. H. Godfrey, M. Inst. C. E., late Commissioner of Public Works Shanghai, to Leonie, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Bullions Moody, of Fawley, Southampton.

Messrs. Leggett and Myers (Tobacco) Company's godown at No. 1, Connaught Road Central, was broken into during Friday night, and two cases of "Old Mill" cigarettes, worth $500 were carried away.

The P. and O. steamer "Nonkin" which arrived here from Home yesterday, made her first call after a lapse of about two years. The vessel was on the Calcutta run for some time and was also laid up at Plymouth for many months owing to the shipping slump.

Lieutenant E. J. Peeter has been appointed to the gunboat "Hollyhock" on the China Station. He was recently serving on the "Dryad," qualifying in navigation. Some ratings for distribution amongst the ships of the China Station will be shortly dispatched from England.

Miss A. V. Smith, who for the past two years has been secretary to the American Trade Commissioner in Shanghai, has been appointed Assistant Trade Commissioner by the U.S. Secretary of Commerce. This is the first time that a lady has been given such an appointment.

Sir Charles Addis, K. C. M. G., Chairman of the London Committee of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank was removed from the nursing home, where he recently underwent an operation, to his own house on September 18. Sir Charles bore the transfer very well and is progressing favourably.

Motor car No. 373, owned by Mr. Fred Ellis, was proceeding along Des Voeux Road West about 7 p.m. yesterday. Passing the entrance of the Taiping Theatre, its way was obstructed by a number of pedestrians crossing the road. The driver, swerving on to the tram lines, ran into two rickshaws, knocking one over and throwing its fare, a Chinese heavily out. The man was hurt. He was taken along in the car, but got out near the Western Market, stubbornly refusing to go to the hospital. His injuries did not appear to be serious as he was able to walk away. Mr. Ellis and a couple of friends were in the car at the time of the accident.

"WITH THE PRINCE IN THE EAST."
SIR HERBERT RUSSELL'S STORY.

If local residents felt slighted by the very brief allusion Hongkong received in the Prince's Guildhall review of his travels (as condensed by Reuter on Saturday), they may take heart from the larger account the Colony's welcome receives in the official history of the tour, Sir Herbert Russell's "With the Prince in the East," a copy of which the China Mail has received from the publishers, Messrs. Methuen and Co., Ltd. (10s. 6d.)

Sir Herbert Russell, who was Reuter's correspondent throughout the tour, explains in a short prefac that the great bulk of "this sketchy narrative" was written during the course of the journey, and he trusts this will be realized as a leavening influence upon criticism." This was a wise precaution, for even a hasty glimpse shows that the book is not free from blemishes. In the account of the Hongkong visit, for instance, he describes the coolies who carried the Prince's palanquin as "eight sturdy Manchus" and he dismisses the wonderful Chinese banquet and play with a line— "The Prince ate his first chopstick meal whilst in Hongkong, attending a Chinese banquet of about thirty courses, each one more mysterious than the last."

Naturally, the book is mainly devoted to the Prince's travels in India and Japan. The best impression Hongkong readers can get of the whole book, obviously, is from the section devoted to the Colony's visit. Sir Herbert Russell writes—

"Dawn of April 6 found the 'Renown' creeping cautiously through a heavy chilly mist, deepened yet by frequent rain intervals. At the mouth of the Lyemoon Passage the weather had become so thick that it was decided not to attempt the intricate channel, criss-crossed at all times with junks and coasters, until it cleared somewhat, and preceded by the 'Durian,' showing her searchlights a guiding star, the 'Renown' went ahead again, and, just before ten o'clock, with her band playing a lilting quick-step and the guns of ships and batteries ashore winking and crashing, swam quietly to a standstill in the man-of-war anchorage abreast of Hongkong town. This stretch of water was a brave picture, notwithstanding the depressing weather, for not only was the whole of the British China Squadron here assembled, but four very smart looking Japanese cruisers had arrived to escort the 'Renown' to Yokohama, and the American 'Washington' and the Portuguese 'Patria' also added their gun to the general thunderous greeting.

"Hongkong showed a cheerful disregard to the drizzle which shrouded the Peak nearly half-way down its height. The water front was literally smothered in drooping flags and swaying lanterns. The 'Renown' was hardly anchored before a tremendous eruption of Chinese crackers and equibis took place from three lighters moored off Murray's Pier—the wallet of the Japanese community, terminating in a great drifting procession of yellow dragons, and other pyrotechnic devices. Red was the predominant colour of the mass of decoration which seemed to swarm up the dark background of the hill side. Every veranda had become a gaudy tracery of vari-hued bunting; every roof supported either garlands, flower, or electric signs.

"The triumphal arches were such a fine effort that they deserve a brief note of description. The Chinese arch, outside the Tai Ping Theatre, was a structure of bamboo and red-painted matting eighty feet high. Heavily adorned with highly-coloured flower and figure designs, it was fascinating in its oriental picturesqueness. The reception pavilion in Statue Square was a symphony in evergreens and bloated crimson paper lanterns. The Indian archway in Queen's Road bore a group of life-sized elephants in dull gold, surrounded by characteristically bright floral designs. The Naval Dockyard, Tai-koo Dockyard, and the China Sugar Refinery had all reared legends on lofty towers. The imposing buildings along the Praya were almost certainly out of sight behind tier upon tier of flags."

After briefly describing the official welcome and programme, Sir Herbert Russell reprints the Chinese address as "a wonderful example of the florid extravagance of style in which Oriental greetings to the exalted are couched." Referring to the illuminations

MORPHINE SENTENCE.
KOREAN PLEADS POOR HEALTH.
MAGISTRATE CONFIRMS DECISION.

Last week a Korean was sentenced to six months' hard labour and a fine of $25,000, for the unlawful possession, on board the a.s. "Mishima Maru," of a large quantity of cocaine and morphine. Mr M. K. Lo this morning made an application to Mr. R. E. Lindell for a revision of sentence.

Mr. Lo said the prisoner was prepared to pay a bigger fine if the sentence of six months could be suspended, or even reduced to three months. Mr. Lo said that he was making the application on the ground of the prisoner's present weak state of health—the prisoner had undergone two very serious operations before leaving London. Besides, as the newspaper had it, the prisoner was a refined man who was used to luxurious living, and he submitted that six months in jail would greatly undermine his already poor health, and even hasten his death.

The Magistrate said that smuggling was becoming more and more serious, and in the circumstances he did not think that the sentence of six months was excessive. Therefore he would have to refuse Mr. Lo's application.

CHINESE AMBASSADOR HERE.

Mr. Wang Wing-po, the new Chinese Minister to Tokio, reached Hongkong yesterday by the a.s. "Hakozaki Maru" yesterday morning and, after calling on H.E. the Acting Governor, was entertained by the Chinese community here. Sir Robert and Lady Ho Tung motored him around the Island and took him to lunch at the Repulse Bay Hotel. Later they dined at "Idlewild" Sir Robert's residence in Seymour Road. The Chinese General Chamber of Commerce were the hosts at a tea party held in honour of the distinguished visitor during the afternoon. Mr. Wang resumed his journey to-day.

STOLEN BICYCLE.

A SUCCESSFUL ALIBI:

The case against a young Portuguese named Victor Neves charged with the larceny of a bicycle which he was alleged to have hired from a bicycle shop in Praya East was concluded before Mr. R. E. Lindell this morning. The defendant was discharged. He proved that he was fishing in Kowloon at the time he was alleged to have taken the bicycle on October 14. Explaining how the stolen bicycle came in his possession, Neves said that it was loaned to him by a friend named Souza who is now in San on.

"ILL LEAVE IT TO YOU."

A.D.C.'S WIND-UP.

Not a seat was to spare at the A.D.C.'s final performance of "I'll Leave It to You" on Saturday night. The audience applauded enthusiastically at every suitable opportunity and when the final curtain fell the calls of "speech" were insistent though ineffectual. Beautiful floral tributes and a number of packages, including a canary in a cage, literally rained on to the stage.

TIONS AND "THE GREAT CHINESE FISH PROCESSION."

Sir Herbert Russell writes that these "were rather enhanced than marred by the haze of drizzle, through which the mass of red lanterns glowed in a sort of nebulous incandescence which, viewed from the water, made it appear as though Hongkong were being consumed by a sort of lambent fire, whilst an interminable pageant of liquid demons—the Fish Procession—marched solemnly through the inferno, bearing aloft great shining carp and dolphins."

Sir Herbert Russell does not even mention the Prince's Kowloon visit—practically the only Hongkong incident Reuter on Saturday reported the Prince as mentioning in his Guildhall speech. Sir Herbert does, however, mention Sir Paul Chater's status project and adds that when the Prince suggested that the money he devoted to some practical benefit for the community, "possibly His Royal Highness was thinking of his visit to the Hongkong University," in view of subsequent events, it is an interesting conjecture.

The book, which should command a wide audience in the East, has thirty-six illustrations including one of men who participated in the fish procession carrying their lanterns.

ODDS AND ENDS.
MAINLY SCISSORS LOOT.
Perfume Crates.

Perfume crates com rising a gilded framework which holds three or half a dozen small cut glass bottles of concentrated scented spirit, are being offered in the perfume shops (obtains the London Evening News). They make pretty presents and are made amongst the wedding offerings of the day. The bottles revolve in their frame, and not only does this cruet keep handsome on the table, but it provides a safe method for keeping scent, because there is so little chance of a flask being knocked over and the precious perfume being spilled.

SCENT & AGRICULTURAL POLICY.

The cultivation of coca was introduced in Java in 1880. There are now, principally in East Java, 6,000 estates comprising 6,000 acres planted in coca, according to official statistics. On practically all of these estates, writes the United States Consul at Surabaya, coca is planted with coffee, rubber, and cassava as a subsidiary crop. The bulk of the output is shipped to the Amsterdam market. Java coca has about the same alkaloid content as the Peruvian product. The basic alkaloid, or Peruvian coca, however, cocaine, while that of Java coca is cinamyl cocaine.

WIFE'S SHARE.

The legal position of the wife was dismissed at the Summer School of the National Union of Societies for Equal Citizenship at Oxford by Mrs. Hubback, the parliamentary secretary of the union. A disability from which the wife suffers to-day, he said, is that she is economically dependent on the husband. That could be remedied by making her entitled to a proportion of the husband's income. A man is not obliged to leave his wife a single penny of his money. That should be remedied. In certain cases in which husband and wife are involved the law presumes co-ownership on the part of the husband. That, the thought, should be done away with.

SHOULD A BABY KNOW?

The humorous remark by Mr. Root, the Westminster Police Court magistrate, that directly a baby is born into the world it is supposed to know every law that is passed, was qualified by a lawyer who said that according to Lord Halsbury's codification of the laws of England the position is: Under seven years—No criminal liability at all can be imputed to a child. Between seven and fourteen years—There is a presumption of law that the child had not sufficient capacity to know that what he did was wrong; but this presumption may be rebutted by evidence and the child may then be criminally liable. A child over fourteen has generally speaking, the same criminal responsibility as a person of full age, 21 years.

WOMAN'S CARRIAGE.

The great majority of women are fundamentally moral rather than fundamentally immoral, and those who are absolutely broken in spirit beyond repair are few, writes Edward Cecil in the Evening Mail. Women's courage is simply marvellous, and they very seldom go utterly to pieces, but it is most certainly true, and this is a fact which is not nearly sufficiently realized, that the vast majority of women, partly in the middle classes, but chiefly in what I must for the sake of clearness call the lower class, live lives in which they never have time to take a real proper interest in anything they do, because they have simply got to get it done somehow, anyhow, so as to cram into the day's work all the necessary things which simply must be done, whatever happens.

END OF GERMAN TYPE OF STAMP.

Commenting on various new stamp issues the Times says: One of the last remaining symbols of the old regime in Germany will pass away with the withdrawal of all stamp in the long familiar "Germany" type on October 31 of this year. This flamboyant design, first adopted in 1900, played an important part in fostering the militarist movement that brought disaster upon the Fatherland. The original of the much-imitated figure of Germany was painted Anna Kubing, of the Imperial Opera, whose portrayal of the role so impressed the ex-Kaiser that he ordered her likeness to be placed upon the new postage stamps of the Empire. Since the establishment of the Republic numerous protests have been lodged against the continuance of this aggressive design, and now that the new industrial series has been completed instructions for its suppression have finally been issued.

During a football match at Kettering, Hampshire, Mr. Harry Cox, who was the captain of one of the teams, collapsed and after claiming "Play on boys" died. His wife and daughter were present. Mr. Cox had heart trouble.

KIDNAP SCARE.

MAN KILLED IN STRUGGLE WITH CROWD.

A ship's cook, Robert Alexander Stewart, of Edinburgh, went to Cambuslang, Glasgow, to take home an orphan boy of five whom he and his wife had adopted.

Stewart was smartly dressed and the boy was barefooted and grimy. In a tramway-car a woman asked Stewart why the boy, whom she knew, was in his company, and to avoid a scuffle she left the vehicle.

This gave rise to the rumour that an attempt was being made to kidnap the boy, and Stewart was pursued and overtaken by a crowd. In the scuffle Stewart received fatal injuries.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The late Dr. Marcus Mackenzie, of the Mission Hospital, Poolewe, left personal estate of the gross value of £2405.

One case of diphtheria and another of enteric fever, both Chinese, were notified during the 48 hours ended yesterday.

ACROSS EASTERN TIBET.
BRIGADIER GENERAL PEREIRA'S TRAVELS.

On Saturday Reuter cabled that Brigadier General George Pereira had reached Lhasa from Peking, walking 3,600 of the 6,000 miles. Writing to the Royal Geographical Society from Tangar, in Western Kansu, under date April 19, 1922, Brigadier General Pereira gave some detail as to his proposed journey southward through Eastern Tibet to Yunnan. He had got together the needed mules and stores for the journey and hoped to start in about three weeks, accompanying a party of soldiers to Jyekundo. His further route would depend on circumstances, but he hoped eventually to walk his way down to Yunan City. He gives a distressing account of the present conditions in most of the interior provinces, each of which has its own factions and other disturbing elements, brigandage being rife in many parts. Kansu was, however, in a better plight than some other provinces, such as Szechuan, where conditions have been particularly bad.

In Kansu the Mohammedans, after a long period of repression, have to a large extent shaken off the Chinese yoke, and are repaying the cruelties so long inflicted upon them by their oppressors. They are probably better armed than the Chinese, and being born fighters, are likely to hold the position they have gained for a long time to come, if not to subdue the areas in the centre, east, and south still held by the Chinese, who are hopelessly divided. Even the Mohammedans are not united, some still adhering to the Koran, while new sects have arisen which hold to later traditions, or even incorporate a mixture of Christianity and Buddhism.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

MR. LLOYD GEORGE'S LEEDS SPEECH.

LONDON, October 20th.

The election of Mr. Bonar Law as Leader of the Unionists at the meeting on Monday is a foregone conclusion. Thereafter an immediate General Election is likely to be announced. It is stated, to-night, on trustworthy information, that a Proclamation summoning a new Parliament will be issued by October 30th, that Nomination Day will be fixed for November 8th and polling for November 10th.

The new Parliament will probably be summoned to meet after a few days' interval, in consequence of the urgency of Irish legislation and other pressing matters.

Yesterday was a day of conferences at which the preliminaries connected with the formation of a Ministry were well advanced. Foreseeing the new Conservative Government is the popular occupation of the hour. There is a general disposition to assume that Lord Curzon will be Foreign Secretary, Mr. Baldwin Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Viscount Peel Secretary of State for India, but there is considerable doubt regarding the Colonial Secretarieship, for which Lord Derby, Lord Selborne, Col. Amery, Mr. Winterbotham and Mr. Ormsby Gore are suggested. It is believed that Lord Curzon receives a Dukelet. All political parties are busy completing arrangements for the Election. It is stated that Mr. Lloyd George has abandoned the idea of a Centre Party and has decided to fight as a Liberal. It is expected that the new Parliament will be constituted in time to deal with the Irish Treaty.

LONDON, October 20th.

The keynote of Mr. Lloyd George's appeal at the forthcoming election is obviously going to be "National interest first against mere party gain." This much was shown in the course of a series of brief addresses delivered from the special train during his triumphal progress northwards. Remarkable scenes of enthusiasm marked the journey, great crowds flocking from neighbouring districts to Bedford, Wellington, Kettering, Leicester, Nottingham and Sheffield railway stations, where brief halts on the way to Leeds were made.

The Ex-Premier, in the course of his remarks, said he was fighting the same old battle of liberty and fairplay. The Tory hounds had been down the gauntlet in the hope of snatching a party advantage and he intended to pick it up. Mr. Lloyd George dwelt on the improved conditions which were resulting from united effort when the Tory hounds came and snatched the whole thing despite the most experienced leaders opposition. He regretted that unity had been broken, but "my conservative friends, Mr. Chamberlain, Earl Balfour, Lord Birkenhead, Sir Robert Horne and myself, stand for the country in this great fight for national unity, which carried us through war and will carry us through the peace."

Great cheering from a tremendous concourse arose as the Ex-Premier and his wife arrived at Leeds. A party of singers rendered "Land of My Fathers" and the enthusiasm was overwhelming.

Prior to Mr. Lloyd George's arrival at Leeds, a meeting of the National Liberal Council elected him President and Mr. Churchill Vice-President. Crowds, penned within barricades outside the hall, tumultuously cheered Mr. Lloyd George's arrival. Limelights were turned on him as he walked on to the platform before an audience of 3,000, cheering frantically and singing "For he's a jolly good fellow." Sir Hamley Greenwood, Mr. McCurdy and other Ex-Ministers, were seated on the platform.

The Chairman, Lord Airedale, described Mr. Lloyd George as "a pillar of the people" and the centre of the world's desire." He said Yorkshire Liberals would never forsake the man who, of all others, stood for democracy and victory.

Rising to address the assembly, Mr. Lloyd George said that the banner of party strife had been hoisted at the Carlton Club and the Coalition that ensured victory and was leading the nation out of its troubles to peace had been ended because Party was not good enough therefore. It was for the nation to decide whether Party or Nation came first. It stood for the people, in whose hands he put his record, whether he had served his native land honestly and sincerely. "God bless you!"

Examining the causes of the Coalition's fall, Mr. Lloyd George said that, firstly, it had no patriotic Press to defend it; secondly, never had Ministers been so continuously harangued. He himself had never had a holiday, but now he was one of the unemployed (laughed) and was able to tell the story. He had been told that he might have been a good War Minister, but he was no good in peace; in other words, he was a good doctor in a case of life and death but no good for curing a headache. (Laughter.)

The war was not a bad test of his services to the nation, while, as regards peace, he took a leading part in establishing old Age Pensions and Health Insurance and he claimed that the Treaty of Versailles was a Charter of Liberty to tens of millions of people. Its first clauses established the League of Nations and he moved the Resolution in the Council of Ten on which the League was based. The Treaty freed Central Europe from the oppression of armaments and he predicted that the democracies of other lands would not continue to bear the burden of armaments. Another provision of the Treaty was the Article to improve the conditions of labour by international co-operation.

Mr. Lloyd George dwelt on the Government's success in re-establishing national credit instead of borrowing like Continental countries. They had ruthlessly reduced expenditure on the Services, despite endless opposition, and had gained no votes by it. Great Britain was the only country in Europe which had completely balanced its Budget, with the result that it was now beginning to "look the dollar in the face" on equal terms.

They had pulled through difficulties largely through the courage and statesmanship of Chancellors like Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Robert Horne in doing unpopular things because they know they money has been performed at home.

were right, with the result that we had nor recaptured the money market of the world. British credit was "as good as ever and somewhat better," yet the combination responsible for this marvellous achievement had been smashed. It was a crime against the Nation. (Cheers.)

The manner in which Mr. Churchill had handled Mesopotamia and Palestine, where cost had been brought almost to a minimum. Mr. Lloyd George claimed the credit of establishing industrial peace, saying that, if the situation had not been handled most carefully anything might have happened.

After dwelling on the Coalition Government's provision for the unemployed and for housing, Mr. Lloyd George referred to disarmament in the Pacific and said

INTERPORT POLO.SATURDAY'S MATCH.

MANILA AGAIN BEATEN.

Manila again suffer d defeat to the tune of 4 goals to 2 when they met a Civilian IV at Causeway Bay on Saturday afternoon.

It was a very interesting game, however, and Hongkong can thank Boyd for its victory, for without him, the game would undoubtedly have ended the other way about.

The teams lined up as follows:-

Manila.—Mr. L. Nelson, Capt. Ball, Major Howell, Mr. C. P. White (captain).

Hongkong (Civilians).—Mr. P. A. Cox, Mr. J. G. Lyon, Mr. W. D. Fiddes-Wilson, Mr. C. C. Boyd (captain).

Mr. McPherson who has just recovered from an attack of fever, was an interested spectator at Saturday's game.

The ground was greasy, and Manila was further handicapped through their ponies being somewhat tired, playing their third hard game in the week. Perhaps this had something to do with their defeat by the Civilians, who were not nearly as strong as the interport team which turned out for Hongkong on Wednesday.

Mr. Boyd played an excellent game, and his long hitting was far more accurate than in the big match. He performed the "hat trick" on Saturday and was responsible for three of the four goals scored.

Manila's team work which was so much commented upon in the Services' match was badly disorganized, and they could not bring off any combination play on Saturday.

Hongkong's combination also left a lot to be desired, but they got along better than their opponents.

Mr. White made occasional break away's for Manila, but he was very unlucky with his finishing strokes. Major Howell and Capt. Ball were not up to scratch.

Mr. Lyon and Mr. Fiddes-Wilson played sound games for Hongkong, while Mr. Cox had occasional bursts of brilliancy, but Mr. Boyd was the life and soul of the team.

The goal scorers were:-

Hongkong.—Mr. Cox, 1; Mr. Boyd, 3.

Manila.—Mr. Nelson, 1; Mr. White, 1; Major Howell scored a third goal for Manila in the fourth quarter after the ball had sounded, but this goal was not allowed as in polo, the ball is considered "dead" immediately the bell is sounded in the last chukka.

It is hoped to make these meetings an annual affair, and Mr. White's ambition is to see Shanghai and Hongkong pay a visit to Manila next year to play a triangular tournament there.

The visitors return to Manila today.

Diphtheria—How it May Be Avoided

Diphtheria is usually contracted when the child has a cold. The old remedy for the child's system for the inception and development of the diphtheric germs. When there are cases of diphtheria in the neighbourhood children that have been kept at home and off the street until recovered. Give the children's Cough Remedy and they will not have to remain at home long. It is also useful in the culture beds which form in the child's throat when it has a cold, and minimizes the risk of contracting infection diseases. For more details consult your doctor.

SPORT.LEAGUE FOOTBALL.*SATURDAY'S MATCHES.

Four matches in the first division of the Hongkong Football League were played off on Saturday afternoon, with the following results:-

Hongkong Club 3 R.G.A. 2

King's Regt. 6 H.K. Police. 0

H.M.S. "Tamar" 1 H.M.S. "Ambrose" 1

Kowloon 1 South China. 0

CLUB V. R.G.A.

This match was played at Seacombe. It was very closely contested, and a very strenuous struggle resulted in the Club running out winners by the odd goal-in 5.

Both ends of the field were visited in quick succession, but for a while neither set of forwards could gain any advantage, so round were the defences.

Valentine opened the score for the Club with a fast shot clear, in which gave Phillips no chance. The Club returned, but Frampton cleared. Cowens broke away for the Gunners, but his centre went begging.

A few minutes later Dugger equalized for the Gunners from a centre by Cowens. After the Gunner had missed two good chances, the Club went down. Begg struck the crossbar with a lofty kick and Valentine scored with a "header."

Soon after the Gunners had a shot at Rodger, who cleared safely, the Club went down and Forsyth added their third goal with a low shot into the corner of the net. There was no more scoring up to half time.

The second half was more strenuously contested by the Gunners who played all they knew to reduce the lead. But the Club were equal to the situation and by no means allowed them to play all their own way. Good chances were missed by the forwards at both ends. After Begg had failed with only the goalie to beat, Pascoe took the ball down and sent in a long shot. Mo-Hugh rushed in, and meeting the ball sent it straight to Rodger, who could not hold it. Heartened by this success, the Gunners went all out for the equalizer and kept the ball in the Club half for quite a while, but the defenders kept them out.

KING'S v. POLICE.

The King's who are much fancied for league honours this season, were too strong for the Police, and scoring four times in the first half and twice in the second, won easily by 6 goals to nil.

The Police were greatly handicapped by the absence of most of their regular players, some of whom are on leave. All the new players need a lot more practice before they can attain anything near to league form. They backed up quite a lot in the second half with Valentine, Pearson and Watson as the back bone of the attack but they were outplayed by the soldiers and never allowed to get dangerous. Swan was great in goal or the defeat would have been much heavier.

KOWLOON v. S.C.A.

This game was very closely contested and Kowloon just ran out winners by the only goal of the match.

Kowloon started the offensive but the Chinese soon got going and gave a lot of trouble at the other end. Townsend played a very sound game in goal and was equal to every situation.

After a long ding-dong struggle Kowloon went away. Duncan received from Coombes when close in and Lau Hing cheung no chance.

The Chinese played a strenuous game to the end but luck favoured Townsend, and he could not be beaten.

"TAMAR" v. "AMBROSE."

These two Navy teams played a fine game together, "Tamar" just won by the odd goal in 3.

Play opened fast. Going straight down Carroll beat Boulter and put the ball beyond Cuysh's reach. "Ambrose" equalized a little before half time, with Boulter out of the field owing to a twisted ankle.

"Ambrose" continued to play one man short throughout the second half and gradually the handicap told.

"Tamar" pressed for a long while, and then Brazendale sent beautifully across goal. Hill trapped the ball well in, and beat Cuysh with a fast shot.

CRICKET.INTERPORT TRIAL.

Another Interport trial match was played on the H.K.C.C. ground on Saturday afternoon. It was right a batmen's game, which showed clearly the Colony's lack of good bowlers. So far these trials have failed to reveal any fresh talent, and the Selection Committee have a very difficult task choosing a team to face Shanghai next month.

Saturday's trial was between teams captained by R.H.B. Hancock and A.E. Wood respectively. Hancock's side batted first, and putting up a stiff front against the bowlers, batted for nearly two hours and a half, at the end of which time they had a total of 235.

With only 50 minutes' batting to do, Wood's side opened their innings with bad luck, and when time intervened, had only 83 runs to their credit for the fall of five wickets.

Capt. Oliver and the Rev. Quick put in a fine innings together which yielded 93 before the latter was caught. Sayer also made a fine partner for Oliver and between the two of them the core was taken up to 141. Oliver was in excellent form and his batting was the feature of the game. He made a well compiled 77 before he was caught by Mitchell off Rumjahn's tricky bows. Capt. Davies and Major Matthews also contributed useful scores, while Hancock was not out with 23.

For Wood's side, Stapleton (28) was the highest scorer. Others who contributed double figures were Wood (21) and Mitchell (20).

GERMAN REPARATIONS.

PARIS, October 21st.
The French Memorandum, on the subject of securing reparations from Germany, has been handed to the Reparations Commission.

The proposals favour a Committee of Guarantees, which will proceed to Berlin and impose upon the German Government measures for the supervision of revenue and expenditure, or the immediate stopping of the export of capital. They should also have power to prohibit certain measures to be determined.

It is proposed that the Committee shall be entitled to all information regarding German finances. Other proposed measures include strict financial control, and the placing of the Reichsbank under Allied control. Germany shall continue to levy at least 25 per cent. on exports, which with customs and export duties, will be under the supervision of the Committee. Guarantees will be sensible if the Reparation Committee considers that Germany is not fulfilling her obligations.

HOME FOOTBALL.

LONDON, October 21st.
The inter-League soccer match was played at West Bromwich, in the presence of 20,000 spectators. The weather was fine and England defeated Ireland by two goals to nil.

England was nearly always attacking in the first-half, but the forwards were never really together and there was a lack of touch between the halves and the front line. The Irish backs worked hard to keep the Englishmen out and at the interval neither side had scored.

With the resumption, the game became faster and livelier, play swinging from end to end. The Irish attack, compared with England's, was disjointed, but occasionally dangerous. From a corner, forced by Mercey, Chambers netted a clever goal, after eighteen minutes play.

The Irishmen strove gamely, but could make no impression on the Home defence. Four minutes from time, Chambers again scored for England.

GLIDING COMPETITIONS.

London, October 21st.
In the Gliding Competitions at Sussex Downs, Olley broke the World's record, flying with a passenger, for forty-nine minutes in a Fokker biplane.

The Gliding Contest at Iford, Sussex Downs, concluded with a record flight by the Frenchman, Mameyrolle, on a Pfeifer machine. The flight lasted two hundred-and-one minutes, thus beating Hentzen's record, and winning the £1,000 newspaper prize for the best performance.

[A cable message, dated August 20th, stated that Hentzen, a young engineering student, had accomplished a two-hour flight in a one-decker salpiano, in the Iboven Hills, Germany. Hentzen subsequently declared that a longer flight was merely a matter of course.]
